General Job Description:

Tiffin University is looking for a motivated and energetic individual to serve as the Head Coach for the Men's Flag Football program. This position is ideal for someone with previous flag football experience, coaching skills, and a passion for fostering a positive and competitive team environment. As part of the Club & Recreational Sports Department, the Head Men's Flag Football Coach will work closely with student-athletes to develop their skills and enhance their experience in collegiate flag football.

Key Responsibilities:

- Organize and lead flag football practices, including drills and skill development.
- Develop strategies and assist with game preparation and execution.
- Foster teamwork, sportsmanship, and a positive attitude among student-athletes.
- Coordinate and oversee team travel for games and events.
- Ensure the safety and well-being of participants during all activities.
- Communicate effectively with the Club Sports Director and team members.
- Promote the growth and success of the Men's Flag Football program through effective coaching and leadership.
- Recruiting student-athletes, scheduling, travel planning, practice scheduling, personal mentorship, and roster management.

Qualifications:

- Experience playing or coaching flag football at the collegiate or competitive level.
- Strong organizational, leadership, and communication skills.
- Ability to inspire and motivate student-athletes.
- CPR and First Aid certification (or ability to obtain upon hire).
- Available to work evenings and weekends based on practice and competition schedules.
- Demonstrated passion for flag football and student-athlete development.

Physical Requirements

- While performing the duties of this position, the employee is frequently required to sit, stand, travel (for long hours), and communicate.
